Jeff & Debbie
Eliana, Layla, and Camden

“What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.” Mark 10:9

We would like to share a little background on this beautiful family. Jeff was here at Alamance Rescue Mission receiving the help he needed to get his life back on track. After receiving the Lord, he became very dedicated to living his life for the Lord and became active in the “Men on a Mission” singing group here at the mission.

About 3 years ago, Debbie came through Alamance Pregnancy Services for help with things she needed for her upcoming baby, Camden. Debbie was very interested in getting into church so we invited her to church. She began coming in the first few months of her pregnancy and continued on after Camden was born. She received the Lord as her savior and was baptized. Debbie has been faithful to the Lord and to the church even though she has had many obstacles to overcome. She has faithfully attended church every Sunday with her two girls and little boy for the last three years, even though at times it was extremely hard to get three children ready for church on her own. God was with her and he has rewarded her for her faithfulness to Him and the church.

Debbie and Jeff started talking at church and eventually asked if it would be ok for them to date. Both Jeff and Debbie wanted guidance from the leaders of each ministry and the pastor of the church before they pursued a serious relationship. They wanted to make sure they were honoring God every step of the way. It was such a blessing to watch as their relationship with each other and their relationship with the Lord grew. Needless to say when they announced their engagement we were all excited and happy for them. They were married December 8, 2018 at Grace Memorial Baptist Church.

God has answered Debbie’s prayers for a Godly husband and God had answered Jeff’s prayers for a Godly wife. What a joy to know that this precious home is serving the Lord and it is directly because each of them followed the Lord’s direction and came to the ministries here for the help they needed.

I am sure they will face difficulties along the way, but with the Lord’s help, and continued guidance from their church family they will be able to stay true to their calling. Pray for them as they strive to raise their children to honor the Lord and live for Him on a daily basis.

Happy Valentine’s Day

Piedmont Rescue Mission Family Shelter Update

Again, I come to you with another call I received yesterday. A single mom with kids is struggling financially and is being evicted from the place they are living because she can't afford to pay the rent. Its not because she is not working, it is because she is the only one bringing in money to support herself and her 3 children. If we were open, we could have given her a safe place to stay until she could get on her feet financially. We would have also had a wonderful opportunity to share the life changing message of the gospel of Christ with her and her children. Every call I get like this makes me feel so helpless. Please pray for an architect to do the final plans for the plumbing and electrical and that the city will approve them as soon as possible so we can get the renovation underway. I look forward to the day when I can answer a call like this one and be able to respond, "yes, we can help you". This is our hearts desire!
