“But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.” Matthew 19:26

“Offering a Hand Up, Not a Hand Out”

March 2020

Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:13 & 14

For almost 3 years we have watched one of our men grow into one of the most Godly examples we have ever had in the mission. Charles Gary came to us from prison after serving many years for his crimes. From the time he walked through our doors he decided from that time forward his life would be different. He was so grateful God had allowed him to come to Piedmont Rescue Mission to acclimate back into life. Charles went through the program and eventually got offered a job he would have never guessed he would get. God then began dealing with his heart to get more Bible training so he enrolled in Greensboro Bible Institute night classes while working a full time job. He is in his second year of Bible school and is feeling the call of God on his life now more than ever. God has opened doors for him to be a vital part of a church ministry in this area, so for that reason he has made the effort to find a home outside the rescue mission. God has also blessed him with a Godly woman to stand by his side in the ministry and they will be married in the near future. Charles will be missed greatly by all of us here at the mission, but we are so proud of him and his commitment to follow the Lord. Charles has been, and will continue to be, an example to all the men that come to PRM, of what God can do if you will submit to His will and not your own. Please keep Charles in prayer as he begins his new life outside the walls of the mission but in the complete center of God's will.

Dear Friends, this is what your support of prayer and finances are doing at PRM. No, not everyone turns out like Charles, but oh what a blessing when one does. It is worth the sacrifices made to see God turn someone around and make him a new man in Christ.

Thank you all so much for standing with us in the ministry. God bless you all.
