“Offering a Hand Up, Not a Hand Out”

I (We) can do all things through Christ which strengthened me (Us).
Philippians 4:13

August 1, 1976, we were married. I was 19 years old and Tammy was 18 years old. It has now been 45 years that we have been married. Philippians 4:13 was our verse then and it remains our verse today. We praise God for his protection, guidance, grace and mercy over our marriage. No, it has not always been easy but we have always had the Lord with us pointing us in the right directions. I had been called to preach at a very young age and started out in Bible school right after high school, Tammy had also stressed the call on her life for ministry at a young age. As it happens, things didn't go the way we planned. For the first 10 years of our marriage, we went through the school of life and learned a lot through those 10 years that we believe made us stronger in the Lord and even more ready to serve him in full time ministry when the call came to us again in a strong way in the late 1980's. We surrendered our lives to him fully for full time missionary work in 1986. For four years we were on deputation to go to Kenya, East Africa. In 1990 God allowed us to board a plane to Kenya, where we were faithful in church planting for approximately 11 years. When we came home, we knew God was leading us in a different direction. He had given us a burden for at risk young people. Doors began to open and Grace Haven was born. We worked with the youth at Grace Haven until 2010 before we had to close the doors. In the meantime, I had been called to be the Executive Director of Piedmont Rescue Mission in 2008. Tammy followed me to PRM in 2009. Looking back over 35 years of full time service for the Lord and the different directions our ministry has taken is such a blessing to us. Not to forget during this time God gave us 3 beautiful daughters and 8 wonderful grandchildren. We have been blessed beyond measure by the Lord.

Also, as we look back we remember all of you that joined us in our ministry by prayer support and financial support. As we move around in different places we run into you from time to time and know that you are still praying for us and backing us in the ministry God has placed before us. God put a special calling on your life to be the backbone of our ministries. Without you and your prayer support and financial support, none of this would have happened. Thank you for answering the call upon your life to support us in our mission to reach the lost souls of a dying world.

We love each of you and we are trusting the Lord for many more years in service for Him.

God Bless You!

Welcoming Brandon Gibson as our new GSST Director

I would first of all like to praise God and thank Him for the opportunity to serve in this mission. The Lord has been so good to me and my family in bringing us to this new chapter in our lives.

My name is Brando Gibson, I am 33 years old. I have been married to my beautiful wife Brittany for 12 years. We have four children, our twins, Grayson and Hunter (11), Jonathan (5), and Joanna (3). We currently serve at Pilgrim Chapel Baptist Church under Pastor Mike Jones as the teenage youth leaders.

Our goal has always been to serve full time in ministry and for us this service has always been a family affair. PRM has always held a special place in our hearts. We were first introduced to the mission about 2 years ago when the Lord opened the door for me to preach once a month in the men's services. We always look forward to the first Friday when Brittany and the kids sing and I preach. We know this is the place God wants us to be. We are blessed to be here, it is an answer to prayer as well as the fulfilling the desires of our hearts.

The staff is a joy to be around. They have been so kind and helpful in assisting me in this transition. I am grateful for all their prayers and support. I know filling Justin's shoes will not be an easy task, but with the Lords help and those He has surrounded me with we will be successful. I look forward to the days to come in serving the community through the mission. I desire your prayers as we seek to give God our all in reaching the lost and fulfilling His purpose.
