“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:”
Ecclesiastes 3:1

Seasons are a fact in our world and whether we like it or not they come and go. Watching the season change from summer to fall is a clear reminder of the differences these changes make in our lives. It gets dark earlier, children are back in school, our beautiful summer flowers change to the fall flowers which are just as beautiful but different. As the leaves fall from the trees and cover the ground we can see that the grass is losing its bright green luster also. Leaf raking time begins at Piedmont Rescue Mission, which is always a dreaded chore for the men but it has to be done. We also have seasons of change in our lives from being a child, to a teenager, to a middle age adult and then to a senior citizen. As we go through these changes some are fun and then others can be trying for us, but the changes come and go and we trust the Lord to help us through each of them. We have been going through many seasons of change here at the mission. Changes in different leadership positions in the ministry has been especially hard for us to deal with. It is so refreshing to us as God takes people out of those positions, he is faithful to send someone to fill the gap. We are grateful for the young men that God has sent our way. What an encouragement it is to see that there are still young men that are on fire for the Lord and want to be used in the ministry in anyway possible.

Tammy and I are at the age where we realize we are at the senior citizen stage in our life but we still have the fire in our hearts to be active in the ministry. We are just thankful God is raising up young men in this ministry that will be able to carry on when we are no longer able to do the work.

Mentoring these young men reminds me of a pastor that mentored me at a time in my life when I was young and on fire for the Lord and ready to do anything God would have me to do. I want to pass this along to the young men God has brought my way and give back to them what was given to me. Please pray for these young men and for wisdom for me in guiding them to hopefully one day be leaders in Piedmont Rescue Mission.

As the women's shelter is getting done we are also needing someone that God has called to work in ministry to step in and hopefully oversee this ministry for PRM. Please pray that God will work in a young couples heart for the women and children's shelter. We know God is still calling his servants out and we pray He will put this very special ministry on someone's heart.

As we go through the seasons of our lives lets remember...
